Yes. All are stubbed in. I didn't look for every stub in the field (although I think I saw most of them), but I have the stamped as-built plan for confirmation.

Hello,

I have a quick question for you. I just needed to confirm with you that all 10 lots you recommended as part of the domestic POU for 63-31656 are stubbed in. I am sure that was the intent, I just can't find in the report where you confirmed they were stubbed in.

Thanks,
Craig
